

Leadership Savvy™ – Strong leaders make strong companies.

Corporate Villages

Keynote, Breakout Session and Full-day Seminar on Diversity

Does your corporate village include people from various cultures and ethnic groups? If so, you may be facing challenges in making all feel part of the team. Based on Karla's journey from a small town in Idaho to Atlanta, Georgia, this keynote challenges organizations to make their corporate culture one of understanding and acceptance. Your employees will gain the skills to:

- Find strength in differences
- Understand cultural differences
- Destroy stereotypes
- Build rapport and establish authentic relationships
- Focus employees on organizational values and goals

Implement Karla's principles and watch the teamwork and productivity that results.

Creating Broad-Based Support for Action

Keynote, Breakout Session, Full-day Seminar

A paycheck buys only brawn. Learn the secrets for engaging the heart and soul as well. You'll be amazed at the increase in commitment, creativity, loyalty, and innovation as you implement Karla's proven leadership principles for creating broad-based support for action.

Her principles will help you build confident, competent leaders while it helps your executives and managers know how to:

- Create vision
- "Sell" their vision and goals at all levels of the organization
- Leverage their personal leadership strengths
- Improve personal power, charisma, and diplomacy
- Build employees who take responsibility
- Generate trust

This is an exceptional program for management retreats. It is also great for association leadership programs.

Make the walls fall and stop the friendly fire in your corporate village by teaching people skills to your employees.
